

Big Seed February News

January came and went so fast! The Seeds made mitten collages, watercolor prints, and they used their feet to make some adorable penguins!

In February, the Seeds will be exploring “Hugs and Kisses”. We will tissue paper hearts, color cupcakes, and do a special project with our hands (who knew we could use our body parts in so many ways).

We will read “Where’s My Hug” Sing “Skidamerink” and Sign “All Done”

Seed Room Moments:

- Phoebe and Logan are walking!
- Cohen and Owen enjoyed stacking the pegs in the pegboard!
- Ada, Molly, and Rowan loved the snow – they were so cute waddling in their snow gear and boots, actually they kind of looked like the penguins they made!
- The sensory table was a favorite spot for Logan and Ian, they enjoyed the cotton ball snow and penguin finger puppets which they placed on their fingertips
- Jack’s new favorite word is “yeah” which so goes with his personality.

Construction has begun on the new Sprout room. The Sprouts will be sharing our playground until their new room is complete. Also the hallway floor may be under construction also so please watch your step!

Please make sure your child has boots or hard soled shoes for outside. The soft soles are very comfy but they soak up the water when we are outside – Thank you

Happy Valentine's Day!
