

Sprout Too News

Last month our theme was "Peek-a-BOO." We made smiling pumpkins, painted black bats and did fall stamping. We started doing some simple yoga moves to rest our bodies before circle time. Ask your kiddos to show you. Two favorites are, "Stand like a tree" or "Brave like a Warrior" It's been a fun new activity! We also introduced Baby Doll circle time. "This program is designed to support the executive skills: attention, self-regulation, impulse control and initiative." Also, the teaching of: language, literacy, numbers, spatial awareness, body parts, body awareness and cooperation." – This is by Dr. Becky Baily. It has been a great addition to our routine.

Whit, Liam, and Kailiana have all jumped right into the Sprout room and are blossoming each day! Kailiana loves to ride bikes, scooters and in the toy cars outside. She is good about remembering a helmet too! Whit enjoys the sensory tables and is the first one to come to the table for art time! Liam can be found digging in the sand box and really likes circle time. We are so happy they are having fun! Charlotte plays in the home center with baby dolls and also likes to build train tracks with her friends. Sage and Sawyer must be watching football because they have been spotted on the grass throwing the ball back and forth. Sawyer is usually saying, "Go Ducks!" Hunter really likes building towers with our new big foam blocks. He thinks it's funny when the blocks come crashing down!

We are saying goodbye to Aubrey as she moves up to the Bud Room.; she will be missed! Eaven will be taking her place; as she is moving up from the Big Seed room. We are looking forward to getting to know her and her family.

This month our theme is, "Give Thanks." Art projects include hand print turkeys, corn rolling and fall finger painting. During circle time we will sing, "Fall leaves", "Thank you song" and Five Fat Turkey's." Story time books are In my Tree, Leaf Man and A Color All His Own.

Please bring in warm jackets, snow boots, snow suits, winter hats and gloves. We go outside every day and we would like to make sure your children are bundled up! Thank you! Ms. Kristine is doing well and we can't wait for her to come back. Ms. Tiina sure has stepped right in though, and has been helpful and wonderful!

Dates to Remember:

- ❖ November 2nd: First Friday
- ❖ November 12th: Veteran's Day. Growing Tree will be CLOSED for Parent-Teacher Conferences.
- ❖ November 22nd & 23rd: CLOSED for Thanksgiving Holiday.

Ms. Kelcy and Ms. Tiina
