

Dear Families,

It's hard to believe that July is nearly behind us. It's been a busy month both in and out of the classroom. We are so incredibly proud of your children and their accomplishments this year. It was a pleasure to participate in graduation!

We want sincerely thank you for all for the support you've offered this year. We feel so fortunate to have families that care so much and who are so dedicated to their children's optimal development. We also want to thank you for welcoming new teachers and ideas into your child's life. Children are so important, so very precious and it has been an honor for us to spend time with them, to educate, guide and encourage them to seek the best in themselves.

We'll be spending another week finishing our Artist Study. It's been an amazing experience watching the Blossoms discover, discuss, critique and create art and make connections with the artists themselves. This next month we'll be moving into our study of Storytelling. Everyone has a story, true or not, and your story is important. We'll be investigating settings, characters, plots, styles, themes, and different ways stories can be expressed. We'll tell stories about times we got injured, when we were surprised, happy, upset or scared, stories about our families, about the day we were born, and many other stories as well. We hope you'll take the opportunity to tell a story – any kind of story – in our classroom, if you are available.

As always, we encourage you to share your ideas with us and to spend time with us in the classroom!

This next month will include many goodbye as most Blossoms will be attending new schools and kindergartens this fall. We wish your child and your family all the best, a successful wonderful year to come. Know that we are always here for visits and your child can contact Tiina, Linda and I by email and receive a prompt response anytime at langfordwlanemt@gmail.com.

Enjoy these next few fun, sunny, and carefree summer weeks!

All the best to you!

Lane, Linda and Tiina
